Can I sponsor a student to attend this program?

Yes! Your generous tax-deductible gift of $2,000 will allow Young America's Foundation to host a student at this program who could not otherwise attend. You can designate a specific student you know to attend, or sponsor a student who is receiving free tuition as a result of financial need. For more information about these and other sponsorship opportunities, please contact Young America's Foundation development officer Haley Jones at hjones@yaf.org or call 800-USA-1776.

To which airport do I fly?

You should fly to Santa Barbara Airport (SBA) if possible, or you can arrive at Los Angeles International Airport (LAX) and take a 2-hour bus to Santa Barbara through the Santa Barbara Airbus (Please visit www.sbairbus.com for more information) Another option is to fly to Burbank airport and take the Amtrak train to Santa Barbara, but this option will add several hours to your arrival.

How will I get to and from the airport and the conference?

Students will be picked up by a Young America's Foundation staff member (with a sign) just outside the baggage claim area on the curb and will be taken in a shuttle bus to the Reagan Ranch Center. The specific times of these shuttles will be determined once students submit their travel information forms about two weeks before the conference, but they will run on Thursday afternoon, August 10 and Saturday night, August 12. You may have to wait in the airport for the next shuttle to arrive. We will not be able to accommodate you if you arrive or depart at other times.

Can I take the bus?

Yes, Greyhound has buses to downtown Santa Barbara, but they are not within walking distance of the Reagan Ranch Center or the hotels. You can take a taxi to the Reagan Ranch Center from the bus stop. Please visit www.greyhound.com for more information on this option.

Can I take the train?

Yes, Amtrak runs trains through Santa Barbara on its Pacific Surfliner route, which spans from San Diego to San Luis Obispo. The train station is located right in front of the Reagan Ranch Center and is a short walk to the hotels. Please visit www.amtrakcalifornia.com for more information on this option.

Will there be supervision during the weekend?

Yes, students will be supervised by several staff members who will be chaperones, and stay in the same hotels, for the whole event. Students are expected to behave appropriately or will have to leave the conference at their parents' expense. Parents need to sign the waiver form and responsibility pledge that will be sent to students prior to the event.

Will students have free time during the conference?

No, because the event is only two days long. If you wish to tour Santa Barbara, please make your own plans to arrive on Wednesday night or stay through Saturday night and Sunday. Young America's Foundation only covers your hotel room on Thursday and Friday nights, and you will check out on Saturday morning before the sessions. A luggage storage room will be provided.

Are parents and family members invited to attend the program?

Parents and grandparents are invited to the opening dinner banquet on Thursday, August 10 at the Reagan Ranch Center and to other portions of the program. Further details will be mailed to students and parents in the weeks preceding the conference.

What does the conference fee include?

Dress for Saturday's sessions and trip up to the Ranch is casual, but respectful. Please pack warm, layered clothes and bring a jacket as it tends to get cold up on the mountain. Jeans are acceptable as long as there are no holes or tears. Be sure to wear comfortable walking shoes

Friday will feature speakers and question-and-answer sessions, a luncheon, and an evening dinner banquet.
