

Fall College Retreat

November 9 and 10
Washington, D.C.

Frequently Asked Questions

When should I arrive?

You should arrive at the Mayflower Hotel between 10:00 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. on Friday, November 9 to check in. The Mayflower Hotel is located at 1127 Connecticut Avenue NW Washington, D.C. 20036. This is where you will receive your conference materials and room assignments. Hotel check in will be available after the opening sessions, around 4:00 p.m. We will have accommodations available for students to store their luggage.

What time does the retreat end?

The retreat concludes on Saturday afternoon, November 10, at 3:00 p.m. Select students will be invited to attend an additional dinner banquet that evening. Please make arrangements that allow for full participation in the program from Friday afternoon, November 9 to Saturday afternoon, November 10.

What is included with my $275 fee?

The $275 fee is broken into two components, a $75 tuition fee and a $200 deposit. After attending the full program and following all conference guidelines your $200 deposit will be refunded by check on Saturday afternoon upon check out. The $75 fee is your final out of pocket cost to attend the program. Almost everything is included, such as your food, 1 night in a hotel (only two students per room), tuition, materials, and other related costs. While many books may be provided, some are sold at the conference, so you may want extra spending money if you plan to purchase the speakers' books to be signed. Leave extra room in your suitcase, as we often give out SWAG!

Is tuition assistance available?

Tuition assistance may be available on a case-by-case basis for those with financial need. If you have financial need, please email a brief essay (no more than a page) to Jolie Ballantyne at jballantyne@yaf.org with some language regarding your financial need and what you hope to gain by attending the retreat. We cannot consider your request until we receive this essay.

Is travel assistance available?

While travel assistance is never guaranteed, Young America's Foundation will gladly consider all completed requests.

Travel assistance may be available on a case-by-case basis for those with financial need. If you have financial need, please email a brief essay (no more than a page) to travel@yaf.org that includes:

- Language regarding your financial need
- What you hope to gain by attending the conference
- Your travel plans
- The expected amount of your travel plans and the amount you are requesting. (For example, "Expected travel costs from LAX to IAD $500. I am requesting $200 in assistance."). We will not consider your request until we receive a completed request.

Travel assistance essays are due October 19, 2018.

What does the retreat fee include?

The retreat fee includes one night, Friday, November 9, at the Mayflower Hotel with only one roommate, tuition, conference materials, and all meals from Friday dinner to Saturday Lunch.

What are the activities during the retreat?

The event begins with interactive activism training followed by a welcome reception and dinner banquet on Friday evening. Saturday features speakers, panels, and a luncheon. Select students will be invited to attend a reception and dinner banquet for Saturday evening.

Will I have free time during the retreat?

There will not be a lot of free time at the retreat. Out of respect for the generous Foundation supporters who have made this program possible, you are required to attend all sessions. If you wish to tour Washington, D.C., please make your own plans to arrive Thursday or to stay past Saturday.

What are the hotel arrangements?

You will be rooming with one person of the same sex. We cannot guarantee your requested roommates, but we will do our best to accommodate your preferences. If you prefer to room with two or more friends, we are happy to accommodate your request to the best of our ability.

How many students are expected at this retreat?

More than 150 participants from across the country are expected to attend this retreat. About 100 of Young America's Foundation's financial supporters will also participate in the sessions along with you.

What is the atmosphere like at the retreat?

The atmosphere of this retreat is similar to a normal college or university. As such, there may be drinking or smoking by those obeying all applicable local and hotel regulations. Those not obeying the law will be prosecuted by local police and subject to removal from the conference at their own expense.

To which airport do I fly?

You should fly to Washington Reagan National Airport (DCA). An alternate option is to arrive at Washington Dulles International Airport (IAD) and take the metro, but this will add about an hour and a half to your arrival. You would take the metro from the Wiehle-Reston East Metro Station to either Farragut North or Farragut West.

What is the dress for this retreat?

Dress for the Friday afternoon sessions is business casual. This means slacks and collared shirt for the gentlemen and skirts or slacks and a blouse for the ladies. Jeans, shorts, and t-shirts are not acceptable attire at any point during conference activities.

Dress for the reception and dinner banquet on Friday evening will be business professional. This means a suit for the gentlemen and a suit or dress for the ladies. Jeans, shorts, and t-shirts are not acceptable attire.

What are the terms and conditions of the retreat?

Terms and Conditions:

- A. LIMITED SPACE. I understand that I am applying for a limited amount of space at this conference and that my application is subject to confirmation.
