Is travel assistance available?

While travel assistance is never guaranteed, Young America's Foundation will gladly consider all completed requests.

Travel assistance may be available on a case-by-case basis for those with financial need. If you have financial need, please email a brief essay (no more than a page) to travel@yaf.org that includes:

- Language regarding your financial need
- What you hope to gain by attending the conference
- Your travel plans
- The expected amount of your travel plans and the amount you are requesting. (For example, "Expected travel costs from SBA to IAD $500. I am requesting $200 in assistance.")

We will not consider your request until we receive this completed request. Travel assistance may not be used for extending your hotel stay, luggage or seat fees, or ground transportation (such as Uber to the airport). Travel assistance may be revoked if you skip any portion of the event.

Is tuition assistance available?

Tuition assistance may be available on a case-by-case basis for those with financial need. If you have financial need, please email a brief essay (no more than a page) to Jolie Ballantyne at jballantyne@yaf.org with some language regarding your financial need and what you hope to gain by attending the conference. We cannot consider your request until we receive this essay.

Can I sponsor a student to attend this program?

Yes! Your generous tax-deductible gift of $1700 will allow Young America's Foundation to host a student at this program who could not otherwise attend. For more information about these and other sponsorship opportunities, please contact Young America's Foundation development officer, Haley Limo, at hlimo@yaf.org or 800-USA-1776.

To which airport do I fly?

You should fly to Washington Dulles International Airport (IAD). An alternate option is to arrive at Washington Reagan National (DCA) and take the metro, but this will add about an hour and a half to your arrival. You would take the metro to the Wiehle-Reston East Metro Station at the end of the Silver Line. Our headquarters is about a 10-minute walk from the station.

How will I get to and from the airport and the conference?

If you fly to Washington Dulles International Airport (IAD) we recommend grabbing a taxi or Uber. If you fly to Reagan National (DCA), you can take the metro to the Wiehle-Reston East Metro Station at the end of the Silver Line. Our headquarters is about a 10-minute walk from the station.

What is the cost to attend?

This program is $20. This includes two nights at a Reston hotel, conference tuition, materials, and 4 meals (Friday dinner, Saturday breakfast, lunch, and dinner). Generous supporters of Young America's Foundation have made this program possible. Therefore, you are required to attend all the sessions and abide by all the rules outlined in the responsibility pledge you will receive prior to the conference.

What is the dress code for this conference?

The dress code for the event is as follows:

Friday afternoon and Saturday's daytime sessions:

- Business casual clothing such as slacks and polo shirts, button-up shirts, sweaters, etc.
- Denim and shorts are not allowed.
- We encourage students to wear a t-shirt or sweatshirt with their school name on FRIDAY afternoon

Dinner Banquets on Friday and Saturday evenings:

- Men should wear a jacket, but ties are not required. (Nice slacks, a collared shirt, and a sports jacket work great)
- Women should wear a suit or a dress. (A skirt and dressy top work well)
- Denim and shorts are not allowed.

What are the activities during the conference?

Friday afternoon features introductions, speakers, and question-and-answer sessions, followed by a dinner banquet that evening. Saturday features more speakers, discussions, and short films. A closing dinner banquet will take place on Saturday evening. All seminar sessions will take place in Dale Phelon Hall at Young America's Foundation Headquarters or at the local hotel.

How will I get from the hotel to the conference?

Young America's Foundation will provide transportation from the hotel to the conference and back for those without a vehicle.

What are the living arrangements?

Students will have one or two roommates of the same sex for Friday and Saturday nights at the seminar hotel. The registration form includes a question where you can request a roommate, and we will do our best to accommodate your requests.

COVID-19 Specific questions:

Will I still be able to meet speakers

To accommodate social distancing requirements, YAF is unlikely to host any formal photo lines with speakers. If we are able to make meet and greets with speakers possible, we will most likely ask speakers and students to refrain from shaking hands and other physical contact.

How will the rooming arrangements change and will I have my own room for social distancing reasons?

Our goal is to match you with a roommate of your choice to avoid additional risk to students. If you don't know anyone attending, or have no preference, you may still be roomed with one fellow attendee of the same sex. If you want guarantee you have your own room, please contact the hotel and make your own reservation at your expense. Please just let us know, by emailing jhahn@yaf.org, so we don't book a second reservation for you.

Will social distancing or masks be enforced during sessions?

YAF will follow all state and local ordinances. As of now, masks are required in the Commonwealth of Virginia. To accommodate social distancing, YAF is reducing the number of attendees to allow for adequate space between students.

Do I need to bring my own mask or will they be provided?

You are encouraged to bring your own mask. YAF will offer free masks as well.

How will meal functions change?

To follow the guidance from the Center for Disease Control, YAF is currently planning to offer individual meal service rather than group buffets.

Will there be things to enjoy in the city during free time?

As Virginia and the District of Columbia slowly reopen, we expect there to be amenities available to you during your time with us. As a reminder, you will not have much free time in the area since we provide you with a comprehensive program. You are free in the evening after dinner (at about 10:00 p.m.) and many students go out and enjoy the town at that time each night. If you wish to have more free time in the Washington area, you need to come early or stay late.

Do we still get to take home YAF swag?

Yes. Remember to leave extra space in your suitcase as we do offer swag items to take home.
