Escaping Communism Seminar

Santa Barbara, California • December 3-4, 2021

Who can attend?

Any students currently enrolled in high school are eligible to attend this program.

When should I arrive?

Registration is from 4:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. on Friday, December 3 at the Reagan Ranch Center (217 State Street, Santa Barbara, CA 93101).

*Students may have the option of touring the Reagan Ranch earlier in the afternoon on Friday, December 3rd. The Ranch was recently threatened by the Alisal Fire, and the status of the road to the property is still uncertain. The Ranch tour is contingent on repairs to the road, and if a tour becomes possible, students will be notified a couple weeks prior to the event.

What time does the conference end?

The conference ends Saturday at 4:00 p.m., and students should depart from the Reagan Ranch Center (217 State St., Santa Barbara, California 93101). We recommend flights depart on Saturday night after 5:00 p.m. Shuttles to the airport will operate starting at about 3:30 p.m. that day. FULL TIME attendance is required.

If the only returning flight would leave your student in an airport overnight for a layover, we are able to assist with providing hotel accommodations Saturday night at a subsidized rate and to get students to the airport Sunday. There is a limited number of stay over rooms available. To reserve a room, call Madison Habersetzer at 805-957-1980 by November 19th.

Is tuition assistance available?

Tuition assistance may be available on a case-by-case basis for those with financial need. If you have financial need, please email a brief essay (no more than a page) to Madison Habersetzer at madisonh@reaganranch.org with some language regarding your financial need and what you hope to gain by attending the conference. We cannot consider your request until we receive this essay.

Is travel assistance available?

While travel assistance is never guaranteed, Young America's Foundation will gladly consider all completed requests.

Travel assistance may be available on a case-by-case basis for those with financial need. If you have financial need, please email a brief essay (no more than a page) to travel@yaf.org that includes:

Language regarding your financial need

- What you hope to gain by attending the conference
- Your travel plans
- The expected amount of your travel plans and the amount you are requesting. (For example, Expected travel costs from IAD to SBA $500. I am requesting $200 in assistance.)
- The subject line for this email should read "Escaping Communism Seminar – Travel Assistance Request"

Please register for the program before submitting your travel assistance essay, and we will not consider your request until we receive this completed essay. Travel assistance essays are due three weeks prior to the event.

Can I sponsor a student to attend this program?

Yes! Your generous tax-deductible gift of $1,000 will allow Young America's Foundation to host a student at this program who could not otherwise attend. You can designate a specific student you know to attend, or sponsor a student who is receiving free tuition as a result of financial need. For more information about these and other sponsorship opportunities, please contact Young America's Foundation development officer Alec Sackett at alecs@reaganranch.org or call 805-957-1980.

How do I cancel my attendance?

If you can no longer attend for any reason, please email madisonh@reaganranch.org with your name and indicate for which conference you need to cancel. If you cancel prior to November 19, 2021 at 5:00 p.m. PST, you will receive a full refund. Please check your card statement to verify your refund was processed.

If, after canceling, you continue to receive correspondence about this conference, please forward your original email to both madisonh@reaganranch.org and bmarsh@yaf.org.

To which airport do I fly?

You should fly to Santa Barbara Airport (SBA), if possible, or you can arrive at Los Angeles International Airport (LAX) and take a 2-hour bus ride to Santa Barbara through the Santa Barbara Airbus (Please visit www.sbairbus.com for more information). Another option is to fly to Burbank airport and take the Amtrak train to Santa Barbara, but this option will add several hours to your trip.

How will I get to and from the airport and the conference?

Students will be picked up by a Young America's Foundation staff member (with a sign) just outside the baggage claim area on the curb at Santa Barbara Airport and will be taken in a shuttle bus to the Reagan Ranch Center. The specific times of these shuttles will be determined once students submit their travel information forms and sent to the students a day or two before the conference, but they will run on Friday afternoon and Saturday evening. You may have to wait in the airport for the next shuttle to arrive. We will not be able to accommodate you if you arrive or depart outside the conference schedule times.

Can I take the bus?

Yes, Greyhound has buses to downtown Santa Barbara, but they are not within walking distance of the Reagan Ranch Center or the hotels. You can take a taxi or Uber to the Reagan Ranch Center from the bus stop. Please visit www.greyhound.com for more information on this option.

Can I take the train?

Yes, Amtrak runs trains through Santa Barbara on its Pacific Surfliner route, which spans from San Diego to San Luis Obispo. The train station is located right in front of the Reagan Ranch Center and is a short walk to the hotels. Please visit www.amtrakcalifornia.com for more information on this option.

Will there be supervision during the weekend?

Yes, students will be supervised by several staff members who will be chaperones and stay in the same hotels for the whole event. Students are expected to behave appropriately or will have to leave the conference at their parents' expense. Parents need to sign the waiver form and responsibility pledge that will be sent to students prior to the event.

Even if a student is 18, they are still expected to abide by all rules and curfew.

Will students have free time during the conference?

No, because the event is only two days long, there is minimal free time. If you wish to tour Santa Barbara, please make your own plans to arrive on Friday morning or stay through Saturday night and Sunday. Young America's Foundation only covers your hotel room on Friday night, and you will check out on Saturday morning before the sessions. A luggage storage room will be provided.

What does the conference fee include?

The $30 conference fee includes one night at a Santa Barbara hotel, conference tuition, materials, and meals from Friday dinner through Saturday lunch.

What is the dress code for this conference?

Dress for the dinner banquets will be business professional. This means a suit for the gentlemen and a suit or dress for the ladies. Jeans, shorts, and t-shirts are not acceptable attire.

Dress for Saturday sessions is business casual. This means slacks, polo or button-up shirts, sweaters, etc. Jeans, shorts, and t-shirts are not acceptable attire.

The Reagan Ranch Center is about a 10-minute walk from the hotels, so ladies who wear high heels may want to consider wearing commuter-friendly shoes for the walks and then slipping into heels upon arriving at the Center.

What are the activities during the conference?

The program formally begins with an opening dinner banquet at the Reagan Ranch Center on Friday evening. Saturday features speakers and question-and-answer sessions in the morning and afternoon.

Students may have the option of touring the Reagan Ranch earlier in the afternoon on Friday, December 3rd. The Ranch was recently threatened by the Alisal Fire, and the status of the road to the property is still uncertain. The Ranch tour is contingent on repairs to the road, and if a tour becomes possible, students will be notified a couple weeks prior to the event.

What are the living arrangements?
