To which airport should I fly?

You should fly into Chicago O'Hare International Airport (ORD).

What if I am an "Unaccompanied Minor" flying in for the conference?

"Unaccompanied Minor" is a term used by airlines to designate travelers under their care. Please refer to your specific airline for guidance on who must be designated as an "Unaccompanied Minor." Flying as an unaccompanied minor requires you to have a designated adult pick you up at the gate upon arrival and wait with you at the gate, inside of TSA security, until your flight is “wheels up.”

Due to the limited number of staff members, we are not able to accommodate “Unaccompanied Minors” via YAF staff. Students needing to fly as “Unaccompanied Minors” must have a friend or family member who is able to get them through the security process.

You can designate a specific student you know to attend, or sponsor a student who is receiving free tuition as a result of financial need.
