For more questions about this, please contact Jaime Hahn: jhahn@yaf.org.

Is travel assistance available?

While travel assistance is never guaranteed, Young America's Foundation will gladly consider all completed requests.

Travel assistance may be available on a case-by-case basis for those with financial need. If you have financial need, please email a brief essay (no more than a page) to travel@yaf.org that includes:

- Language regarding your financial need
- What you hope to gain by attending the seminar

This program is open only to middle school students at this time. High school and college students are encouraged to attend other Foundation programs; more information is available at yaf.org/events.

If traveling via airplane, to which airport do I fly?

You should fly to Washington Dulles International Airport (IAD). An alternate option is to arrive at Washington Reagan National (DCA) and take the metro, but this will add about an hour and a half to your arrival. You would take the metro to the Wiehle-Reston East Metro Station at the end of the Silver Line. Our headquarters is about a five minute walk from the station.

How will I get to and from the airport and the seminar?

Young America's Foundation will not provide transportation to/from the airport.

What is the dress code for this seminar?

You must wear casual but respectful attire for all summer. Jeans are okay with no holes or rips. When in doubt, err on the side of caution.
